1. Present this form to the voter, and ask the voter to provide a copy or original of one of the following forms of identification listed in Section 63.0101(b) of the Texas Election Code:
   a. a certified domestic (from a U.S. state or territory) birth certificate or a document confirming birth admissible in a court of law which establishes the voter's identity (which may include a foreign birth document);
   b. a current utility bill;
   c. a bank statement;
   d. a government check;
   e. a paycheck; or
   f. a government document that shows the voter's name and an address (which includes the voter's voter registration certificate).

   NOTE: The address on the identification presented is not required to match the address recorded in the official list of registered voters.

   NOTE: If on Election Day, a presented voter registration certificate indicates that the voter is appearing at the incorrect polling place, the voter should be directed to the correct polling place.

2. Ask the voter to complete this form by entering their name, and then ask them to review the "Voter's Declaration of Reasonable Impediment", indicate their impediment, and sign their name.
3. Ask the voter to return the completed form to you. Neither you nor the election judge may question the voter concerning the reasonableness of any claimed impediment. The election judge should enter the date and then sign on the space provided on the declaration.
4. Either you or the election judge shall fill in the voter's Voter Unique Identification Number ("VUID") in the appropriate box or affix a sticker that contains that information across the box, and note on the combination form that the declaration was used by the voter. Either you or the election judge should indicate on the "To Be Completed By Election Official" form what type of document the voter provided by checking the appropriate box. Either you or the election judge should fill in the Date of Election and Location fields.
5. Allow the voter to cast a regular ballot.

NOTE: This form may also be used if a voter voted provisionally and does not possess and cannot reasonably obtain an acceptable form of photo identification, and appears at the county voter registrar's office within six (6) calendar days after election day to execute a reasonable impediment declaration and present one of the supporting forms of identification, in accordance with Section 65.0541 of the Texas Election Code. In that instance, the county voter registrar should follow steps 1 through 4 above, but substitute references to "election judge" with "county voter registrar", including signing where the election judge would otherwise sign on the space provided on the declaration.

SIMILAR NAMES

The law states that the voters name on their ID must match exactly OR be substantially similar to what we have on the voter registration database (VoteSafe)

Similar Name Matches

- Election workers will need to fully compare the voter's name listed on VoteSafe to the name listed on the acceptable form of ID.
- There are only three possibilities:

1. Name on VoteSafe and ID are identical.
2. Name on VoteSafe is "substantially similar" to name on ID.
3. Name on VoteSafe does not match and is not similar to name on ID. (it's a totally different name)

4. Ask for help if you can't determine what to do!

Names are Identical

- If the voter's name on the Pollbook is identical to the name on the ID, the voter will proceed as usual.

Using the 2D barcode scanner connected to the JBC, scan the label with the barcode and the JBC will print the proper access code for the ballot style needed.
Give the access code to the voter and direct them to an available booth.

WAVING AMERICAN FLAG

To all voters:

- Tell the voter to ask for help if they need it and to make sure they see the waving American Flag before they walk away from the booth!

Assisting Voters with Disabilities

- Voters who are physically unable to mark the ballot and/or cannot read the languages on the ballot may receive assistance.

Ensuring Accessibility

- Polling places must accommodate voters who have disabilities. No person should be denied the right to vote because they have restricted mobility, vision, speech or hearing impairments.
- Accommodating people who have disabilities is mostly a matter of sensitivity and common sense.

Etiquette Reminders

- Be sure you recognize that physical disabilities are not cognitive impairments. For example, assume a person using a wheelchair can read, write, and follow directions as well as anyone who walks into the polling place. Don't fall into the common insensitivity of underestimating people.
- It is okay to use words like "see" and "hear" and "walk" while talking with someone who has one of these impairments.
- Take your time and be considerate of the person you are qualifying or assisting. Adjust your pace to theirs.
- Talk directly with the voter, not the aide, assistant, or interpreter.
- Ask before helping.

Provisional Voters

Three types of provisional voters

- Registered voter in VoteSafe without their ID
- Voter not registered in VoteSafe
- Mail Ballot Voter without their ballot

Curbside Voting Page 23 of the HART Desk Reference both ED & EV

Who Qualifies: Under Section 64.009 of the Election Code, a voter who is "physically unable to enter the polling place without personal assistance or likelihood of injuring the voter's health" may vote at the polling place entrance or curb.

Curbside Procedure

Poll worker or voter's helper needs to provide the photo ID, language preference, Party for Primary, and whether headphones are needed.
Poll worker will go through the check-in process on the Kiosk and sign "curbside" as the signature. Once the label prints from the Kiosk, poll worker scans the label on the JBC and gets the access code. Once the ballot is on the eSlate screen, it is removed to be taken out to the voter.
The Kiosk label is put on the Curbside combination sheet and the sheet is carried along with the eSlate, out to the voter where the poll worker verifies the ID of the voter, has them sign the combination sheet under the label and then gives them the voting machine to vote their ballot
